

MELANIE LYNE

All Dressed up and Somewhere to Go!

This season, look to dresses as your summer style saviours. Whether you prefer chiffon bias cut dresses, floor skimming maxi dresses, fresh cotton options or sleek stretch satin variations, a dress takes you from weddings, to garden parties and balmy summer nights in a flash. Upping the femme factor, floral prints rule the style garden with dainty bouquets, oversize blossoms and abstract interpretations offering a posy pattern for every fancy. Adding that extra measure of irresistibility, colour soaks both prints and solids with turquoise, mango, coral, honey dew, peach and pink providing brilliant splashes to the colour landscape. Perennial favourites, black and white combinations return, while flattering ruching details, empire waists and v-necks add romantic, hyper-feminine details. Need something fabulous in an instant? Slip into that gorgeous dress and go!
